KANAZAWA
Once the castle town for the wealthy Kaga feudal clan, Kanazawa continues to fascinate us while evoking a harmonious blend of bygone-day splendors and modern-day trendiness.

GOKAYAMA, NANTO
Compiled of hamlets with traditional farmhouses of the thatched “Gassho-zukuri” style, Gokayama retains the genuine rural landscape of Japan. Highly hospitable local folks always extend a hearty welcome to visitors.

---

SHIRAKAWA-GO
Nestling in a nature-rich mountain nook, the peaceful hamlet of Shirakawa-go (in the Hida Mountains) is famous for its “Gassho-zukuri”-style farmhouses and is collectively registered as a World Cultural Heritage Site. It exudes the genuine rural atmosphere of Japan.

---

TAKAYAMA
Takayama City is proud of its three quaint streets of old: the Kenroku-en district (including the former castle tower center and merchant town) and the Shimokita district, enchanting with Taoi Stars. Just a tortoise’s way to get to the clouds as well as the prized Hida beef taste treat.

---

MATSUMOTO
Matsumoto City is proud of Matsumoto Castle (a National Treasure) and is the gateway to Kanazawa renowned for its utopian scenic splendors; Matsumoto is rich in natural scenery as well as historical and cultural attractions. Numerous well-kept springs that can be found around the town enhance the atmosphere.

---

TOKYO
This city is packed with attractions that allow visitors to experience Japanese cultural heritage. Zojoji Temple is a must-visit in Tokyo; Togakushi is Japan’s most famous Shinto shrine and is designated a National Treasure; the Matsuura district offering a variety of Japanese cultural experiences, and Togakushi is which is a 2000-year-old religious center of mountain ascetics.
