

Limited Express “Narita Express” Service

A decline in overseas travel demand due to the spread of COVID-19 has affected Limited Express Narita Express service connecting the Tokyo metropolitan area to Narita airport. Since May 1, 2020, service has been suspended except for some trains in the morning and evening. However, as of Saturday, March 12, 2022, the date that timetable revisions are to be put in place, trains will resume service and additionally stop at Chiba Station, improving access between the Chiba area and the Tokyo (Tokyo, Shinagawa, Shibuya, Shinjuku) and Yokohama (Musashi Kosugi, Yokohama, Totsuka, Ofuna) areas.

1. Resumption of Limited Express “Narita Express” Service

- Service to resume:
Saturday, March 12, 2022
- Number of services to resume:
18 to stop at Chiba Station (29 from Saturday, March 12, 2022). Includes trains operating in both directions
See the attached document for specific trains.
- Reserved seats for trains resuming operation available:
10:00 am, one month before date of service
