

Outpatient consultation guidance (Flow from reception to payment)

① Fill in the application form and consent form

- Please read the instructions, fill out the application form and consent form, and submit it(them) to the general reception (new patients).

② General reception

- Wait until your name is called.
- After receiving the medical treatment guide sheet and pink file with the medical examination number, please go to each medical department reception by elevator or escalator.

③ Reception desk

- Please submit a medical questionnaire and wait in the waiting area. You will be called by number or name.

④ Consultation

- If there is a monitor in front of the consultation room, the consultation number will be displayed upon calling.
- Follow the instructions and receive a consultation from the doctor.
- We will tests as needed.
- After the examination, return to the consultation floor and tell your corresponding department reception that you have returned.
- If you need a medical certificate (bound for submission to an insurance company), please contact your doctor.
- After the consultation, submit the pink file to the reception desk (A) on each floor.

(A) Here is the sign of the calculation reception.
Located on each floor.

* When testing is required

- Please go to B2F
- There are reception desks (B) for X-ray [H], blood collection reception [I], and physiological test [J]. Please do the necessary procedures and wait. Do the procedure for blood collection first.
- When all tests have been completed, please return to the reception of the corresponding department and let them know

(B) There is a reception for each test (B2F)

⑤ Payment calculation (on each floor)

- Send the pink file to the calculation reception desk (A), receive the payment number, move to the first floor, and wait before the payment reception.

⑥ Payment

- When your number has passed on the display board (C), pay at an automatic payment machine or billing counter (4). Please get your receipt, medical statement, patient card, and medicine voucher (if you have a prescription).

(C) Front of 1F payment

⑦ Medicine dispensary window

- Located on the 1st floor next to the general reception (next door to the outpatient wing).
- When the medicine waiting number is displayed on the medicine display board (D), please receive the medicine at the pharmacy.

(D) Medicine dispensary window
(located next to the general reception on the 1st floor)

Waiting numbers are displayed in order

When you receive the medicine, the consultation is over.